2012 MEDIA GUIDE • MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press credentials should be made to the BGSU Athletic Communications Office, addressed to the attention of Dave Meyer. Requests should be made at least one week in advance. Late requests will be honored if space is available, but parking cannot be guaranteed for requests less than one week in advance. Scouts and non-working media will be seated if space is available.

WEEKLY INFORMATION

Media members can access BGSU information via the internet at BGSUFalcons.com. Weekly game notes and statistics will be updated regularly. A PDF version of releases and statistics can be e-mailed to those outlets which would prefer to receive this information on a regular basis. Please notify Dave Meyer if you would like to be put on our primary media e-mail list.

MAC TELECONFERENCE

Coach Clawson will be available each Monday during the regular season on the weekly MAC Teleconference (11:06-11:14 a.m., Eastern). To join this MAC Teleconference please contact the MAC at 216-466-5622 and ask for Ken Mather.

WEEKLY PRESSER

Coach Dave Clawson will hold a weekly media press conference each Wednesday at 1 p.m. in the Wilcox Board Room on the third floor of the Sebo Athletic Center. All members of the media are welcome to attend. Out-of-town media should contact Dave Meyer to schedule a phone interview with Coach Clawson or players at least one day in advance. All phone interviews need to be completed by Wednesday evening. Audio and video of each weekly press conference will be available at bgsufalcons.com by Wednesday afternoon.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All interviews with members of the team should be conducted at Coach Clawson's Wednesday media press conference. Players will be made available at 1 p.m. to those in attendance. Please allow at least 24 hours to set up interviews with players. Arrangements will be made for telephone and in-person interviews at a time that is mutually agreeable to the reporter/broadcaster and the athlete, should there be a schedule conflict.

PARKING

A special media parking lot is located adjacent to Doyt Perry Stadium, near the southwest corner of the stadium. Access to the media lot is by Alumni Drive which connects Mercer Road (near the Alumni Center) and Wooster Street (near the Information Booth). Admission to the media lot is restricted to people holding the correct credential acquired from the athletic communications office. All media members are asked to enter the stadium through the press gate (Gate 2) at the southwest corner of the stadium.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

At Home: Coach Clawson and BGSU players will be available for post-game interviews in the Sentinel-Tribune Room located between the two locker rooms, following the normal cooling-off period. BGSU observes a closed locker room policy. The Sentinel-Tribune Room is on the east side of the stadium (opposite the press box), and can be entered through the tunnels at either the north or south end. On the road: Coach Clawson and requested players will be made available in a designated media room or just outside the locker room following the normal cooling-off period.

PRESS GATE

The press gate (Gate 2) at Doyt L. Perry Stadium is at the southwest corner of the stadium, a short walk from the media parking lot.

MEDIA FIELD POLICY

A general media pass will allow you access to the field during pre-game warmups and during the final five minutes of the fourth quarter only. Field access at other times will be limited to working photographers and television reporters. No interviews may be conducted on the field and any attempt to do so may lead to the loss of your media pass.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Members of the media will be provided with game programs, flip cards, current statistics and last-minute pregame notes prior to the start of the game. Statistical summaries will include play-by-play, quarter stats, halftime stats, complete team and individual stats and tackles. The BGSU Press Box does have a wireless internet connection for all members of the media.

RADIO & TELEVISION

Requests for permission to broadcast must be made in writing. Space will be made available for the official visiting radio station and student radio station on request. There is space in each booth for four persons. Phone lines can be ordered through Dave Meyer. Anyone wishing to televise a game from Doyt L. Perry Stadium should contact the athletic communications office at least ONE MONTH prior to the game, and preferably before the start of the season.

Falcon Sports Radio Network

WFRO 99.1 FM enters its third year as the flagship station for Bowling Green athletics beginning in the 2012-13 season.

Todd Walker (left) begins his 10th season as the “Voice of the Falcons” while John Gibson (right) returns to the radio booth for his seventh year, spending 2003-05 and 2009-present with the Falcon football radio team. Also entering his seventh season with the broadcast team is engineer Dave Morris, and BGSU alum Dave DeNatale returns for his fourth year running Falcon Central.

WFRO Eagle 99 will carry all football and men’s basketball games, as well as the live Falcons Nest Coaches Show, which airs on Monday nights from Fricker’s in Bowling Green. Additionally, all radio broadcasts are available on the Web at the official home of Bowling Green athletics, www.bgsufalcons.com.

In addition to Bowling Green State University, Learfield Sports manages multimedia rights for more than 50 collegiate institutions and associations and titles the Learfield Sports Directors’ Cup. For additional corporate information and a complete collegiate portfolio, visit www.learfieldsports.com.

The Sebo Athletic Center houses the 9,300 square foot weight room where all 18 of the Falcons' varsity sports train to enhance their athletic ability. Through the hundreds of tools, machines, and other resources that the weight room provides, the BGSU Strength and Conditioning program is able to design and implement safe, progressive and comprehensive programs for each and every student-athlete.

Over 50 state-of-the-art machines allow an extensive variety of equipment to choose from; which includes machines designed by Pendulum ©, PowerLift ©, Hammer© and Nautlius© strength training equipment.

Six fully functional PowerLift © Power Racks, numerous free weight tools, multiple variations of grip training equipment, and several bodyweight training tools give student-athletes an opportunity to work with various modes of strength training.

AWARD WIN FALCONS EARN

Barnes participated in the red carpet special on ESPNU prior to the award ceremony

[illegible]

Barnes' numbers in 2009
were so impressive that www.
FreddieBarnes.com was launched.

Barnes took several pictures, including one with Tim Brown (also a WR), a member of the National Football League and a 2009 College Football Hall of Fame member.

Barnes finished the year with a new NCAA record 155 catches in 2009, smashing the old mark (142) set in 1989. Barnes added a nation leading 19 touchdown receptions as well.

2012 SEASON OUTLOOK

2012 OUTLOOK • POSITION BREAKDOWN

The numbers speak for themselves. The 2011 Falcons' roster featured 81 players that were sophomores or younger. In the two-deep alone freshmen and sophomores made up 33 of the 53 players listed. While still young (only four senior starters return), the Falcon roster is now loaded with student-athletes that have seen significant action on the field, which includes 10 returning starters on defense, another seven on offense and three members of the special teams unit will return for 2012.

As the roster trends towards a more upper-class, the Falcon statistics are also showing an improvement. BGSU saw a dramatic increase across the board in 2011, improving in wins (+3), points scored (+5.3), yards gained (+90.1) and points allowed (-4.8). They also turned the ball over three less times and threw six less interceptions in 2011 compared to the previous year. The experience is even beginning to show through penalties. In 2010 the Falcons ranked 10th in the Mid-American Conference in penalties per game (6.0-53.3) and climbed to second in the MAC in 2011 (4.8-42.1).

With all the positives surrounding the BGSU football team, it is clear that goals and expectations are high for 2012.

Scouting the Falcons

Quarterbacks

Lettermen Returning: 1, Lettermen Lost: 1

Starters Returning: 1, Starters Lost: 0

Matt Schilz is expected to once again take the reigns of the Falcon offense, his third year under center. The junior posted career-highs in competitions (245), attempts (412), yards (3,024) and touchdowns (28) in 2011, and had five games of at least three touchdown passes and two 400-yard passing days. Still only a junior, Schilz has already started 22 games in his career.

While Schilz is expected to be named the starter as 2012 begins, he will see some competition from red-shirt freshmen Matt Johnson and Malik Stokes, along with true freshman James Knapke. None of the three have seen action with the Falcons.

2012 Returning QB Stats
Name	GP	Comp-Att-Int	Pct.	Yds.	TD	Long
Schilz	12	245-412-13	59.5	3,024	28	83

Running Backs

Lettermen Returning: 4, Lettermen Lost: 2

Starters Returning: 1, Starters Lost: 0

It would be hard pressed to find a deeper position on the team besides running back. Anthon Samuel was named MAC Freshman of the Year after rushing for 844 yards and five touchdown in just nine games and finished third in the country among freshmen running backs in yards per game (93.8). Jordan Hopgood, who actually began the season as the starter before suffering a knee injury, still ran for four touchdowns in brief action.

With both Samuel and Hopgood out, Jamel Martin ran for 111 yards in his first career start versus West Virginia and ended the year second on the team with 280 rushing yards. With all three out due to injuries the Falcons had to call on John Pettigrew to close out the season in a 42-28 win at Buffalo, a game which saw Pettigrew run for a career-high 50 yards.

One other name to keep an eye on will be Andre Givens, who was a top-25 recruit in the state of Ohio back in 2010. Givens has yet to see action with the Falcons.

2012 Returning RB Stats
Name	GP	Att	Yds.	Avg.	TD	Long
Samuel	9	144	844	5.9	5	96
Hopgood	9	60	213	3.5	4	23

2012 OUTLOOK • POSITION BREAKDOWN

Wide Receivers

Lettermen Returning: 1, Lettermen Lost: 6

Starters Returning: 0, Starters Lost: 2

No other position with the BGSU football team was hurt more during the off-season than wide receiver. Gone is first-team All-MAC member Kamar Jorden, along with five other senior wide outs. Who will replace them is probably the biggest question during fall camp.

The leading candidate will be Shaun Joplin, who was third on the team with 21 catches and 292 yards. He added the game-winning touchdown versus Temple, his first touchdown grab of his career. After that, look for Herve Coby, Je'Ron Stokes (Michigan transfer), Chris Gallon, Heath Jackson, Travis Green, and Diontre Delk to contribute. None of the before mentioned players have ever caught a pass for the Falcons.

Tight Ends

Lettermen Returning: 4, Lettermen Lost: 0

Starters Returning: 1, Starters Lost: 0

The Falcons go four-deep at the tight end position, and not one will be a senior in 2012. The position is led by junior Alex Bayer, who was fourth on the team with 20 catches for 242 yards and a pair of scores. He also started all 12 games last season. Sophomores Kendall Montgomery (6-5, 260) and Clay Rolf (6-6, 275) are two of the biggest tight ends in the league, but had just two catches combined between the two. Junior Tyler Beck, who plays more of an H-Back position, had eight catches for 97 yards and a touchdown in 2011.

Sophomore Chris Pohlman and freshman Scott Davis are all expected to push for playing time as well

Offensive Line

Lettermen Returning: 6, Lettermen Lost: 3

Starters Returning: 3, Starters Lost: 2

After a rough couple of years on the offensive line the Falcons are starting to put together a unit that is deep and competitive. Gone are starters Ben Bojicic and Kyle Bryant, but due to injuries in 2011 the Falcons actually have four offensive linemen that started at least 10 games last season. Dominic Flewellyn (12 starts), Chip Robinson (11 starts), Dominique Wharton (10 starts) and Jordan Roussos (12 starts) all saw major action last season.

Fahn Cooper, Christian Piazza, Darion Delaney, and Scott Hodges are expected to contribute to the tackle position, with junior college transfer (David) Kelii Kekuewa and red-shirt freshmen Alex Huettel and Spencer Cairo competing at guard and center.

Defensive Line

Lettermen Returning: 8, Lettermen Lost: 1

Starters Returning: 3, Starters Lost: 1

The defensive line returns nine of its top 10 performers in 2011, including three starters. Tops on that list is defensive tackle Chris Jones, an all-MAC first-team member last season. The senior registered 47 tackles, 8.5 sacks, 14.0 tackles for loss and three forced fumbles in 2011. He is expected to be joined by Ted Ouelett (6 starts), Jairus Campbell (6 starts) and Hunter Maynard at the defensive tackle position. In that group of five, only Jones will be a senior when 2012 begins.

OUTLOOK

At defensive end, Ronnie Goble returns for his second season after registering 20 tackles and four tackles for loss last season in nine starts. He will be joined by Charlie Walker (27 tackles and 4.0 TFL) Zach Colvin (11 tackles, 1 sack) and Bryan Thomas (was lost early in 2011 to a knee injury) as Falcons with experience at the position.

Expect red-shirt freshmen Shaq Hall and Bryan Baird to also contribute in 2012.

Linebackers

Lettermen Returning: 4, Lettermen Lost: 0

Starters Returning: 2, Starters Lost: 0

The Falcons return their top four linebackers from 2011, including both starters, led by first-team All-MAC performer, Dwayne Woods. The senior-led the team with 111 tackles and 14.0 tackles for loss, while adding two sacks, one interception, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Since taking over the middle linebacker spot, Woods has 245 tackles in 24 games (10.1/game). Joining Woods at the outside linebacker position will be a combination of Paul Swan (63 tackles) and D.J. Lynch (43 tackles, 3.0 sacks). Expect Gabe Martin (25 tackles) to contribute as well.

Defensive Backs

Lettermen Returning: 10, Lettermen Lost: 4

Starters Returning: 5, Starters Lost: 0

BGSU, who plays a 4-2-5 defense, returns all five starters from the 2011 secondary, but some changes are expected to begin 2012. In all, 10 letter-winners return to the back-end of the defense, with just one senior (Tim Moore).

At cornerback Cameron Truss (10 starts, 1 INT), DeVon McKoy (8 starts, 4 PBUs) and Darrell Hunter (6 starts, 5 PBUs) will compete for starting positions.

The safeties will include Ryland Ward (12 starts, 69 tackles), Aaron Foster (11 starts, 69 tackles), BooBoo Gates (12 starts, 73 tackles), and red-shirt Jude Adjei-Barimah. Gates started the first 11 games at rover in 2011, but made his first career start at safety in the Falcons' win at Buffalo. Expect Gates to make a push for a starting spot.

The big question mark will be what happens at the rover position, a position that is expected to tackle like a linebacker and cover like a safety. Expect returners Brian Sutton, Tim Moore and Austin Collier to compete with newcomers Josh Pettus, James Sanford and Erick Hallmon for the rights to start in 2012.

Special Teams

Lettermen Returning: 3, Lettermen Lost: 1

Starters Returning: 3, Starters Lost: 0

For the first time in four years the Falcons will return the entire special teams unit that consist of placekicker Steve Stein, punter Brian Schmiedebusch and long snapper Cory Johnson.

Stein took over kicking duties in week four and finished the year, connecting on 8 of 11 field goals and 24-of-25 extra points. While Stein will enter camp as the starter, expect red-shirt freshman Tyler Tate and true freshman Anthony Farinella to battle for playing time.

There expects to be little to no competition at punter with the return of the Ray Guy semi-finalist. Schmiedebusch averaged 45.3 yards per punt, fifth-best in the nation. He had 19 punts of over 50 yards and another 18 downed inside the opponent's 20 yard line. The junior had three punts of over 70 yards, including an 81-yard kick in his first career game versus Idaho.

Dave Clawson

Head Coach, Fourth Season
Williams College-Massachusetts, 1989

Dave Clawson became the 17th head football coach at Bowling Green State University on Dec. 12, 2008 and enters his fourth year at the helm of the Falcon Football program.

Clawson brings 23 years of coaching experience, including 12 years of head coaching experience to the BGSU program. He most recently spent time at Richmond (2004-07) and Fordham (1999-2003), where he combined for a 58-49 record. In 2007 he led the Richmond Spiders to the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision semifinals.

Clawson twice has been named national Division I-AA Coach of the Year, winning once at Fordham and once at Richmond, and was named his league's coach of the year four times in a seven-year span. In 2005 and 2007, the Richmond Touchdown Club selected him College Coach of the Year, and he was an Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award Finalist in 2002 and 2005.

In his first year at BGSU he led the Falcons to a 7-6 record and an appearance in the Humanitarian Bowl. He helped direct an offense that featured Biletnikoff Award finalist Freddie Barnes to a nation's best 155 receptions (NCAA record), while also earning first-team All-MAC honors. That same season the Falcons finished 6-2 in Mid-American Conference play, while leading the conference in passing yards per game (316.2 yards/game).

Clawson Honors

- 2007 CAA Coach of the Year
- 2005 & 2007 Virginia Sports Information Directors Association Division-I Commonwealth Coach of the Year
- 2005 I-AA.org National Coach of the Year
- 2005 Atlantic-10 Coach of the Year
- 2002 & 2005 Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Finalist
- 2002 Schutt Sports/American Football Monthly I-AA National Coach of the Year
- 2002 Patriot League Coach of the Year
- 2001 Patriot League co-Coach of the Year

Bowling Green went 2-10 in Clawson's second season, but rebounded in 2011, finishing with a 5-7 record, improving by three wins, the 13th best improvement in the country. In 2011 Clawson helped four Falcons earn first-team All-MAC and saw freshman running back Anthon Samuel win MAC Freshman of the Year honors. Even with the three win improvement Clawson's squad was dominated by young faces, with 34 combined freshmen and sophomores on the two-deep, a rebuilding project he has done two different times.

Prior to BGSU, his two head coaching jobs resurrected first Fordham, boosting a Rams program coming off 12 straight losing seasons into NCAA playoff participants, and then Richmond, which twice advanced to the postseason. Before that, Clawson called the offensive plays for another pair of Division I-AA powerhouses in Lehigh and Villanova.

Quarterback development and pro production have been Clawson staples. Nine times in his 17 years as either an offensive coordinator or head coach, Clawson's quarterbacks earned all-conference honors, including BGSU's Tyler Sheehan, who threw for a school record 4,051 yards in 2009. This past season Matt Schilz threw 28 touchdowns, the second-most in BGSU history.

2012 OUTLOOK • COACHING STAFF

In addition, NFL regulars such as two-time 1,000-yard rusher Brian Westbrook (Eagles), receiver Brian Finneran (Falcons), tailbacks Rabbih Abdullah (Buccaneers, Bears and Patriots) and Tim Hightower (Cardinals and Redskins), quarterbacks Stacey Tutt (Jets) and Kevin Eakin (Bills), and defensive lineman Aki Jones (Redskins), played for Clawson.

In 1998 he accepted the head coaching position at Fordham, where he became the youngest Division I head coach in the nation (31). His 19 combined victories during his final two years (2002-03) at Fordham were the most wins there in back-to-back seasons since 1918-19.

He then guided Richmond to the biggest two-year turnaround in Spider football's 124-year history, improving from 3-8 his first season of 2004 to 9-4 and an NCAA playoff berth the following year.

A native of Youngstown, N.Y., located on the shores of Lake Ontario just 30 minutes north of Buffalo, Clawson played defensive back in football and also basketball at Williams College in Massachusetts. He graduated in 1989, and then began a two-year assistant coaching stop at Albany. From there, he coached two years at Buffalo and three at Lehigh, including his first two years, 1994-95, as an offensive coordinator.

Clawson then was named offensive coordinator at Villanova, where he helped establish 70 school records and led the Wildcats to the I-AA playoffs in 1996 and 1997. Under Clawson's tutelage, receiver Brian Finneran won the Walter Payton Award, given to I-AA's most outstanding player, and running back Brian Westbrook became the first student-athlete in NCAA history to gain more than 1,000 yards rushing and 1,000 yards receiving in a season.

Clawson and his wife, Catherine, are the parents of two children, Courtney and Eric.

Warren Ruggiero

Offensive Coordinator/QBs, Fourth Season
Delaware, 1988

Warren Ruggiero begins his fourth year as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Bowling Green State University.

Since arriving at BGSU Ruggiero turned Tyler Sheehan into an All-MAC quarterback and has seen current starting quarterback Matt Schilz improve dramatically from 2010 to 2011. Schilz was so impressive to start the 2011 season that the Manning Award added him to its "Watch List" midway through the season. Schilz finished the year with 3,024 yards, sixth-most in school history, along with 28 scores, second-most at BGSU.

Ruggiero's staple has been developing All-American and professional quarterbacks during his coaching career. While at Kansas State he developed Josh Freeman into a first round draft pick and current starter of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and helped BGSU's Tyler Sheehan to an NFL contract with the Houston Texans in 2009. Ruggiero also played a critical role in the development of Scott Riddle (CFL - Montreal), Anton Clarkson (New York Giants) Rocky Butler (CFL - Saskatchewan), and several other All-American quarterbacks.

Ruggiero has used those signal callers to record some of the most exciting offenses in the country over the past 15 years. In 2008 he and Freeman helped Kansas State to the 18th best passing offense in the country, while he and Sheehan led a unit that ranked first in the MAC and sixth nationally in passing yards per game (316.2) a year later. Sheehan finished the year completing 373 of 575 passes for 4,051 yards and 27 touchdowns, all career-bests under the guidance of Ruggiero. In fact, his 4,051 passing yards were only the second time in BGSU's 90-year history that a Falcon quarterback had surpassed the 4,000 yard plateau.

Ruggiero also played a large role in helping wide receiver Freddie Barnes earn national honors, being named a Biletnikoff finalist, given to the country's top wide receiver. In 2009 Barnes led the country in receptions (155) and touchdowns (19), while ranking second in yards (1,770). Barnes' 155 catches smashed the previous NCAA mark (142) for catches in a season, previously held by Manny Hazzard (Houston) since 1989.

Prior to arriving at Kansas State, Ruggiero coached Scott Riddle, who went on to earn First-Team All-American honors, helping an offense to finish second in the country and ninth in scoring, while earning the Southern Conference Player of the Year. As a true freshman Riddle broke 27 school records en route to being named College Sporting News National Freshman of the Year and leading the country in total passing yards, passing yards per game and completions per game.

Prior to Elon, Ruggiero spent six years at Hofstra, serving the first two seasons (2000-01) as the recruiting coordinator/quarterbacks coach and the last four (2002-05) as the offensive coordinator.

While at Hofstra he coach Anton Clarkson (All-Conference) and Rocky Butler (All-American). Clarkson helped lead an offense that finished third in the country in passing and 10th in scoring offense. Butler earned First-Team All-American honors and was the runner-up for the Walter Payton Award for top I-AA player behind Brian Westbrook in 2001. That season Butler was third in the country in total offense and second in passing efficiency.

While still at Hofstra he recruited and coached future New Orleans Saints wide receiver Marques Colston, who was named to the NFL All-Rookie Team in 2006.

To go along with his 18 years of offensive coordinator experience, Ruggiero was also the head coach at Glenville State College for two seasons (1997-98). While there, he led his team to the school's first-ever NCAA Division-II playoff appearance and won the WVIAC Conference Championship. Ruggiero still owns the highest win percentage among all coaches in GSC's history.

While at GSC he coached quarterback Wilkie Perez. Perez would earn Second-Team All-American honors, en route to breaking the Division-II record for most total yards in a season. That year the offense ranked first in the country in passing offense and passing efficiency and fourth in scoring.

Ruggiero, spent three seasons at Clarion, where he coached Chris Weibel, helping him to garner Second-Team All-American honors, helping his team to finish first in the country in scoring and second in passing efficiency.

Ruggiero has some Northwest Ohio ties, having served as the running backs coach, quarterbacks coach, offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator for Defiance for five seasons (1989-93). Ruggiero helped quarterback Jon Smith to earn All-American honors. Smith still currently holds records for pass attempts, completions, yards and touchdowns at Defiance.

Ruggiero and his wife, Jennifer, have one daughter, Emma.

Mike Elko

Defensive Coordinator/Safeties, Fourth Season Pennsylvania, 1999

Mike Elko begins his fourth year as the defensive coordinator with the Falcons after holding the same position at Hofstra from 2006-08. He will also coached the safeties in 2012.

Elko's defense has been known for two things since arriving at BGSU, forcing turnovers and stopping teams on third down. In the past three seasons, Elko's defense has forced 63 turnovers (1.7/game) and the opponent has converted on third downs just 38.9 percent of the time.

In his first year with the Falcon defense he took eight first-year starters and transformed them into a unit that forced 12 turnovers in the last three regular season games in 2009. Elko's defense was also tops in the MAC on third downs, allowing a success rate of just 36.5 percent.

Elko's defense continued the turnover trend in 2010, forcing 29, the second-most in the conference and fifth-most in the nation. Elko also helped mold linebacker Dwayne Woods into an all-conference performer, as the then sophomore led the Mid-American Conference with 134 tackles, earning second-team all-MAC honors.

In 2011 the team managed just 15 turnovers, but still held opponents to just 36.8 percent on third downs, fifth-best in the MAC, while molding a defense that featured 17 freshmen and sophomores on the two-deep. That same season Elko helped coach Woods and Chris Jones to first-team All-MAC status. Jones led the conference with 8.5 sacks.

Elko has eight years of defensive coordinating experience under his belt, as well as experience working with BGSU head coach Dave Clawson at Fordham and Richmond.

Prior to joining the Falcons, Elko coached the No. 1 passing defense in the Colonial Athletic Association with Hofstra, holding teams to just 136.8 yards per game through the air.

Hofstra's defense ranked first in the CAA and 11th in the FCS in rushing defense, second in the conference and 15th in the country in total defense, and fourth in the CAA and 37th in the FCS in scoring defense in 2007.

In 2006 Elko directed the defensive backs in addition to his defensive coordinator duties. The Pride's defense ranked in the top half of the conference in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and passing defense.

Elko came to Hofstra after two seasons as linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at the University of Richmond. His first recruiting class at Richmond was a large part of the Spiders' 9-4 record, including a 7-1 slate in the Atlantic 10 in 2005. Richmond defeated Hampton, 38-10, in the first round of the I-AA playoffs before dropping a 24-20 decision at Furman.

The Spiders ranked 12th in the FCS in scoring defense, allowing just 17.7 points per game, and 22nd in rushing defense, allowing just 120.1 yards per contest. Before coaching at Richmond, Elko worked with current head football coach Dave Clawson at Fordham University as his linebackers coach and co-defensive coordinator in 2002 and 2003. While at Fordham, Elko coached a defense that led the Patriot League in scoring defense (14th nationally in 2002) and sacks, as well as ranking third with 25 turnovers caused in 2002. In 2003 the Rams led the league in pass defense.

Elko's coaching experience also includes time at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, where he served as defensive coordinator. He also coached at his alma mater, the University of Pennsylvania, directing the secondary. He began his coaching career at Stony Brook in 1999 where he guided the linebackers in the fall and the defensive backs in the spring.

A member of the Penn football team for four years, Elko helped the Quakers win the Ivy League title in 1998. He received a bachelor's degree in history in 1999.

Mike and his wife Michelle, have three children, Michael, Andrew and Kaitlyn.

John Hunter

Running Backs/Recruiting, Seventh Season
Bowling Green, 1988

John Hunter will begin his seventh year on the Falcon coaching staff, serving as the team's running backs coach, and is in his fourth year as the recruiting coordinator for the Orange and Brown.

Hunter has coached an All-American, a MAC Freshman of the Year and an All-MAC performer, all three by different running backs.

This past season Anthon Samuel ran for 844 yards and five touchdowns, earning MAC Freshman of the Year honors. Samuel was the first running back in school history to win the award and was third in the country among freshmen running backs, averaging 93.8 yards per game. Samuel was also named a Freshman All-American (third0team) by Phil Steele.

Hunter molded Willie Geter into a third-team All-MAC performer as a senior in 2010, and helped him finish his career with 2,156 rushing yards, eighth-most in school history.

Hunter helped coach a pair of running backs in Geter and Chris Bullock to combine for 1,027 yards and 13 touchdowns in 2009. The running back position in BGSU's offensive scheme is also asked to pass block regularly, a unit that allowed just 27 sacks (2.1/game) despite throwing the ball more than any other team in the MAC.

Despite constant injuries in the backfield, Hunter helped coach a quartet of tailbacks to average 4.93 yards per carry in 2008, finishing the season with 1,192 yards and nine touchdowns.

In 2007, Hunter's running backs recorded 1,607 yards on the ground, led by former quarterback Anthony Turner (519). True freshman Willie Geter chipped in with 432 yards and Chris Bullock had 281.

In 2006, he saw the Falcons lead the MAC, averaging 176.6 yards per game, and oversaw the development of freshman All-American Chris Bullock.

From 2000 to 2006, Hunter served as the head football and boys track and field coach at Pershing High School in Detroit. On the gridiron, his teams were 40-28 and made four state playoff appearances in his six years after the school had made just one state playoff appearances in its history prior to his arrival. He led Pershing to two district titles, two regional championship games and one Detroit P.S.L. playoff nod.

Hunter, who graduated from BGSU in 1988, was a four-year starter at line-backer and twice was named first-team All-MAC (1986 and 1987). For his career, he had 336 tackles, including 44 for loss, and was a member of a 1985 MAC Championship team. Following his senior year, he signed a free agent contract with the San Francisco 49ers. Prior to his stint at Pershing High School, Hunter was an assistant coach at St. Martin DePorres in 1989 and from 1994-99. He was the defensive backs coach for a team which won the state championship in 1989 and was defensive coordinator from 1994-99, also winning state titles in 1995 and 1996. As a player, he also played on state title teams at DePorres in 1981 and 1982.

A native of Detroit, he and his wife, Amara, have a son, John, and a daughter, Justiss.

Adam Scheier

Special Teams/TEs, Fourth Season
Dartmouth, 1995

Adam Scheier begins his fourth year with the Bowling Green State University football team. He will coach the special teams and tight ends for the Orange and Brown.

In three years under Scheier the Falcons have three kick returns and two punt returns for touchdowns and have blocked 11 kicks (punts and field goals/extra points).

In 2011, Scheier's special teams had one kick return for touchdown, a BooBoo Gates 88-yard score versus Toledo. They also blocked four kicks, including a punt block in a 37-23 win at Miami. BGSU's Brian Schmiedebusch was first-team All-MAC as a punter and was a Ray Guy semi-finalist this past season, while BooBoo Gates earned second-team All-MAC honors as a kick returner.

In 2010 the Falcons returned three kicks for scores, including a pair of punt returns by Eugene Cooper, who earned second-team All-MAC for his efforts. As a unit, the Falcons ranked second in the MAC with an 11.1 yard punt return average. Freshman BooBoo Gates added a 75-yard kick return for a score versus Kent State.

Scheier's special teams units made impact plays in 2009 as well, blocking four punts, including a pair versus Toledo in a 38-24 win and one kick return for touchdown.

Scheier, who also coaches tight ends at Bowling Green, has helped produce Jimmy Scheidler, a second-team All-MAC performer in 2009 and a Phil Steele Fourth-Team member in Alex Bayer, who earned the honor as a freshman in 2010.

Prior to his time at BGSU, Scheier spent seven seasons overseeing the special teams units at Lehigh, was also responsible for the wide receivers position for four years, in an offensive system much like Coach Clawson implemented for the Falcons. Scheier also spent three seasons as Lehigh's running backs coach.

In 2008, the Lehigh wide receivers finished with the top two spots on the team's reception list, led by Mike Fitzgerald, who had 51 catches, including 11 touchdowns.

In 2007, the Mountain Hawk receivers helped Lehigh average over 200 receiving yards per game, while seven players hauled in a touchdown reception, and seven different receivers caught at least ten passes. 2005's receiving corps – under the direction of Scheier for the first time – was one of Lehigh's best in recent memory. Four players amassed over 300 receiving yards, and 11 different players caught a touchdown pass.

The special teams units were consistently productive under the direction of Scheier. In 2008, kicker Jason Leo connected on 8-of-13 field goal attempts, while averaging 43.0 yards per punt. Lehigh's punt unit finished both the 2008 and 2007 seasons ranked third in the nation in net punting. During his career, Leo became one of 10 football players in league history to earn four consecutive all-league honors. Leo's recognition marked the ninth straight year as a special teams coordinator that Scheier has mentored a kicker or punter to all-league status, a group that includes three All-American nods. In addition, Lehigh's kickoff return unit led the league and ranked in the top 15 nationally three times in the last four years and Scheier coached punt return units to top 15 finishes three times in his years as a coordinator.

Scheier came to Lehigh after spending two years at Princeton as the special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach. Prior to his stint at Princeton, Scheier spent three years as an assistant at Columbia, coaching the strong safeties and outside linebackers. He began his coaching career at Dartmouth, assisting with the secondary in 1996 after earning four varsity letters as a free safety for the Big Green and being awarded the special teams player of the year award as a senior.

Scheier earned a bachelors degree in psychology at Dartmouth and a masters in education at Columbia. Scheier and his wife Erica have three daughters, Callie, Riley, and Madeline, and one son, Brady.

Mark Carney

Wide Receivers, Fourth Season
Fordham, 2002

Mark Carney will begin his fourth year as the wide receivers coach at Bowling Green.

Carney is making it a habit of producing first-team All-MAC performers, as well as wide receivers that put up numbers that are comparable to anyone in the nation. In three years Carney has produced three first-team All-MAC performers, four Biletnikoff Watch List members (and one Biletnikoff finalist) and many BGSU record breakers.

In his first year with the Orange and Brown, he helped coach Freddie Barnes, a Biletnikoff Award finalist to national recognition. Barnes, who would appear on ESPN's First Take, the Dan Patrick Show and handled many other interviews, led the country in receptions (155) and touchdowns (19), while finishing second in the nation in yards (1,770).

In 2010 he followed up the Barnes extravaganza with a new Falcon, Kamar Jorden. In his first year with the Orange and Brown, Jorden led the conference with 96 catches and finished the year with 1,109 yards and four touchdowns. The catches and yards ranked third in school history. In a two-year span the Falcons' top wideout has combined for 251 catches, most among any duo in the country in that span.

Carney did not disappoint in 2011, helping Jorden and Eugene Cooper receive national recognition, both earning status on the Biletnikoff Watch List. Jorden would once again earn first-team All-MAC honors, finishing the year with 78 receptions for 1,089 yards and 12 touchdowns. Jorden became the first Falcon in school history with two 1,000 yard performances. Cooper set a school record with four touchdown receptions versus Morgan State, and finished the year with 67 catches for 808 yards and nine touchdowns.

Carney, a native of Cleveland, Ohio, brings several years of Ohio recruiting experience to the Orange and Brown. The fourth year Falcon coach also helped mentor a former Richmond quarterback to NFL status and played under Dave Clawson at Fordham, earning all-league honors as a quarterback in 2001.

In 2008 Carney coached wide receivers at Richmond, where he helped the Spiders to the FCS National Championship. Under Carney's teaching, Kevin Grayson led the team with 61 receptions and 853 yards. It was Carney's first year coaching the wide receiver position. He spent the previous four years as the Spiders' quarterback coach.

As the coach for the Spider signal callers, Carney oversaw the development of former Spiders Stacy Tutt and Eric Ward into two of the most productive quarterbacks in school history.

Ward finished his sophomore season with a single-season school record 216 completions for 2,341 passing yards -- the fourth-best single-season mark by a quarterback, surpassing the 2,219 yards thrown by Tutt in 2005.

Tutt was a free-agent signee by the New York Jets in the spring of 2006 and graduated from Richmond as the school's all-time single-season leader in total offense with 3,047 yards (828 rushing, 2,219 passing) and 12 touchdowns.

A standout quarterback who earned All-Patriot League and All-American honors in 2001, Carney spent 2002 and 2003 working with current BGSU head coach Dave Clawson at Carney's alma mater, Fordham. While with the Rams, Carney helped guide Kevin Eakin, a program record-holder, to all-conference honors his final two seasons. Eakin went on to play professionally in the NFL for the N.Y. Jets and Buffalo Bills and for Hamilton in the CFL.

Mark and his wife, Sarah, have one daughter, Devyn and are expecting their second child this winter.

Bill Durkin

Offensive Line, Third Season

Bill Durkin begins his third year coaching the offensive line at Bowling Green.

The offensive line has seen major improvements in the past two seasons under the leadership of Durkin. The Falcons ranked last in the nation in rushing per game in 2010 (64.8), but rebounded in 2011, nearly doubling its rushing per game to 122.9.

Durkin had his hands full in 2010 with an offensive line that graduated three starters from the previous year and a unit that suffered many key injuries throughout 2010. Durkin helped mentor Jordan Roussos into a starting right tackle after beginning 2010 along the defensive line. He also turned true freshman Dominic Flewellyn into an every day starter.

In 2011 the offensive line returned four starters and saw Ben Bojicic earn third-team All-MAC honors, while allowing just 23 sacks on the year. Durkin's unit also helped pave the way for freshman running back Anthon Samuel, who ran for 844 yards and five touchdowns, earning MAC Freshman of the Year honors.

Durkin brings his 16th year of coaching the offensive line having spent time most recently at Hofstra, where he served as the offensive line coach and running game coordinator in 2008-09. He added assistant head coach to his title in 2009.

Prior to his time at Hofstra he spent 11 seasons at the University of Richmond (four years with Clawson, 2004-07), where he was part of four conference championship teams.

He joined the Spiders' program in 1997 as tight ends and offensive tackles coach and coached two all-conference selections and one All-American during his three seasons in that capacity.

Durkin coached Richmond running backs from 2000 through the 2003 season before assuming the role of offensive line coach from 2004 through 2007. He added the run game coordinator title in 2007 as well.

The Spiders broke school records for rushing offense, total offense, total points scored, and single-game total offense and rushing offense marks in 2007 as Richmond advanced to the NCAA FCS Championship semifinals. In posting their third consecutive winning season for the first time in 52 years, the Spiders set a school-record with 11 wins.

Durkin, who began his coaching career as a strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater, the University of Massachusetts, in 1995 and 1996, was a four-year letterman, a two-year team captain and first team all-conference selection in 1992 and 1993, and a consensus first team All-American in 1993 at UMass. He was named to the Yankee Conference 50th Anniversary All-Star Team.

Following graduation, he played with the New England Patriots and the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe, as well as the Shreveport Pirates and the Baltimore Stallions of the Canadian Football League.

Bill and his wife, Victoria, have two children, Ryan and Rachel.

Nick Monroe

Secondary, Third Season
St. Cloud State, 2001

Nick Monroe begins his third year as the secondary coach at Bowling Green State University.

Monroe has had the task in each of the past two seasons of rebuilding the secondary with first year starters.

Monroe was in charge of arguably the youngest secondary in the country in 2011 that featured three sophomores and two freshmen. Cameron Truss led the team with nine pass breakups, while first year starters Ryland Ward and Aaron Foster were third on the team with 69 tackles.

In 2010 Monroe coached a secondary that featured four new starters. Monroe helped coach Jovan Leacock, who came to BGSU as a wide receiver, into a safety that finished second on the team with 91 tackles. He also had two interceptions. The secondary also featured Truss, who led the team with seven pass breakups.

Prior to his time at BGSU Monroe was the co-defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Colgate University. He spent six years on the defensive side of the ball, beginning as the outside linebackers coach before moving to the secondary in 2006.

In 2009, Colgate finished the season ranked No. 1 in total defense in the Patriot League. In his last three years as the secondary coach, Monroe had four first-team All-Patriot League selections and one second-team pick.

In 2008, cornerback Wayne Moten was named Colgate's Defensive MVP and was first-team all-league.

In 2009, strong Safety Uzi Idah was named Colgate's Defensive MVP and was first-team all-league. The same season, true freshman cornerback Demetri Diamond was named The Patriot League Rookie of the Year.

Colgate won a pair of Patriot League Championships while Monroe was there in 2005 and 2008. Both league championships earned berths to the Division 1-AA National Playoffs.

Prior to his time at Colgate, Monroe was the secondary coach for two seasons at Allegheny College, where the team won the conference championship in 2003 and earned a berth in the NCAA Division III National Playoffs.

Monroe was a four year letter-winner at St. Cloud State University and a one year starter at cornerback. He graduated from St. Cloud State in 2001 with a degree in marketing.

Larry McDaniel

Defensive Line, Second Season

Larry McDaniel begins his second year as the defensive line coach at Bowling Green.

McDaniel made a major impact in his first year with the BGSU defensive line. Defensive tackle Chris Jones led the MAC with 8.5 sacks, a new career-best for the senior-to-be. Jones earned first-team All-MAC honors, adding 14.0 tackles for loss. In all, the front-four had 16 sacks, with just one senior in the rotation.

McDaniel brings 13 years of Mid-American Conference experience to Bowling Green, having spent eight seasons at Kent State (2003-10) and another four with the Cardinals of Ball State (1999-03). He also brings Midwest roots to the Orange and Brown, after graduating from Indiana University in 1993 and spending one season as a graduate assistant coach for the Hoosiers (1997).

Last season with the Golden Flashes, McDaniel helped coach Roosevelt Nix to the MAC Defensive Player of the Year award, the first freshman in conference history to win the honor. Nix went on to be named first-team Freshman All-American by Sporting News, Rivals.com, Phil Steele, CollegeFootballNews.com and the Football Writers Association of America.

While Nix garnered most of the attention, the Kent State defense as a whole was one of the best in the MAC, finishing third in points allowed (22.9) and first in total yards (306.7), while recording a school record 35 sacks in 2010 (KSU had 33 sacks in 2009).

Prior to Kent State, McDaniel spent four years in a similar position at Ball State University. He coached the defensive tackles in his first two seasons at Ball State, then assumed responsibility for the entire defensive line the last two years. The Cardinals were Mid-American Conference West Division tri-champions for the 2001 season.

Before joining the BSU staff, McDaniel was an assistant coach for one season (1998) at Southwest Missouri State University, where he tutored the tight ends and was the assistant recruiting coordinator. He was a graduate assistant coach at Indiana University during the 1997 season after serving as an assistant strength coach at the school the previous summer.

A native of St. Louis, Mo., McDaniel earned four letters as a nose tackle at IU from 1989-92 and was one of three captains his senior season. As a sophomore, he led the team with five quarterback sacks.

McDaniel graduated from Indiana in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in business management. He was in private business for four years before joining the coaching ranks at his alma mater.

He and his wife, Arlena, have two daughters, Lauren and Shelby, and a son, Mac.

Clark Lea

Linebackers, First Season
Vanderbilt, 2005

Clark Lea begins his first year as an assistant coach for the BGSU football team. Lea will coach linebackers.

Lea brings six years of experience coaching linebackers, including the past three seasons with the Bruins. Lea was part of two bowl teams (2009 and 2011) and coached linebacker Akeem Ayers, who was a Dick Butkus Award Finalist in 2010 and went on to be selected by the Tennessee Titans in the 2011 draft (39th selection).

In 2009 the Bruins won the Eagle Bank Bowl over the Temple Owls, a member of the Mid-American Conference. That season the Bruins' defense ranked third in the PAC-10 in total defense and scoring defense and was first in turnovers forced.

Lea (pronounced Lee) also served as a Bruins graduate assistant in 2006 and a defensive intern in 2005.

In between his pair of stints as a Bruins coach, he spent two seasons (2007 and 2008) as linebackers coach at South Dakota State University and was recruiting coordinator during the second year. He also coached the kickoff coverage unit and assisted with other special teams units. In 2008, the Jackrabbits finished 7-5, playing six teams ranked in the Top 25, and placed third in league play with a 6-2 record.

In 2007, his three starting linebackers ranked among the top four tacklers in the league and South Dakota State won the Great West Football Conference championship. Two of his players were first-team all-league selections and the third was a second-team choice.

Prior to UCLA, Lea served as an offensive graduate assistant (running backs) at Vanderbilt University in the Spring of 2005. Lea was a three-year letterwinner at Vanderbilt University from 2002-2004, the final year as a graduate student, and was a baseball letterman at Belmont University in 2001-2002 and Birmingham Southern College in 2000-2001.

During his collegiate career, Lea was a member of the SEC Honor Roll and an All-Academic SEC honoree. He was also a John Wooden Cup finalist, a trophy awarded by Athletes for a Better World, and a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame honoree. He earned a bachelors in political science from Vanderbilt in 2005 and a Masters in political science from Vanderbilt in 2007.

He and his wife, Allison (formerly Gauer), are expecting their first child in August.

Strength & Conditioning
Second Season

Brandon Hourigan begins his second year as the Director of Strength and Conditioning at BGSU.

Hourigan's responsibilities include overseeing the strength and conditioning of all 18 sports at Bowling Green and he brings vast experience with multiple sports at Virginia, Richmond and Northeastern.

Hourigan comes to BGSU after spending the past two seasons at the University of Virginia as the Head Strength and Conditioning coach. While at Virginia he was responsible for all program development for the football team.

Prior to his time at Virginia, Hourigan was the head strength and conditioning coach for football at Richmond from 2005-08, where he worked with current BGSU head football coach Dave Clawson for three seasons (2005-07). He oversaw all fitness duties for the Spiders, who won the 2008 NCAA Football Championship Subdivision title. Hourigan also worked with multiple other sports during his time at Richmond.

Prior to his appointment at Richmond, Hourigan was the assistant coordinator of speed, strength and conditioning at Northeastern University. He worked with the Huskies' football, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's hockey, volleyball, men's and women's soccer and men's and women's track and field squads.

Hourigan has also worked as an assistant strength & conditioning coach on the collegiate level at Arizona (2001) and Clemson (1998-1999). He also served as a strength & conditioning intern for the Kansas City Chiefs in the NFL in 1999.

Hourigan graduated with a bachelor of science in physical education from Plymouth State College where he was a four-year letterwinner in football. At Clemson, he completed work toward a masters of sciences in guidance and counseling.

Hourigan is certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association, the United States Weight Lifting Association, and has both First Aid and CPR certification.

Hourigan and his wife, Amy, have two sons, Brandon, Jr. and Connor, and a daughter, Ava.

Clint Dowdle

Asst. A.D. for FB/Dir of Operations
Fourth Season

Clint Dowdle will begin his fourth season as the director of football operations at Bowling Green State University and was promoted to Asst. A.D. for football two years ago.

Dowdle oversees all areas of Football Operations within the Football Program, and is a member of the External Relations team for the Athletics Department; being involved with fundraising and marketing. Dowdle headed the $100,000 Locker Room Renovation Project this past summer.

Prior to arriving at Bowling Green, Dowdle served as a Graduate Assistant at the University of Tennessee, for 1 season, and was then hired as the Assistant Director of Football Operations. Dowdle held this position for 3 seasons under former Tennessee head coach Phillip Fulmer. During his time at Tennessee, Dowdle worked with the offense and football operations en route to an SEC East Division title and a Capital One Bowl victory in 2007. He was also a part of the Vols 2006 Capital One Bowl appearance.

The Memphis native earned his business management degree in 2005 from Christian Brothers University, where he was a four-year basketball starter and three year captain. He led the team in minutes, assists and steals all four years and twice was named Academic All-Gulf South Conference. Dowdle earned his master's in sport management from Tennessee in 2007.

Dowdle captured high school All-State honors in both basketball and football at Evangelical Christian School, quarterbacking ECS to a pair of football state titles while earning Tennessee's Mr. Football award his senior season. In addition, the Memphis Commercial Appeal selected Dowdle to its Best of Preps list in both basketball and football three times and named him their 2000-01 Male Athlete of the Year.

Compliance and Student-Athlete Services
Seventh Season

Mark Shook, a native of Rittman, Ohio and a BGSU graduate, began his career at BGSU after four years in the Division of Athletics at Purdue University. He began his collegiate administrative career in August of 2002 as Academic Support Services Advisor and by the summer of 2005 was named an Associate Director of the office. Shook was the lead academic advisor for the Boilermakers' football student-athletes, and also served that role for men's basketball as well as for numerous Olympic sports during his tenure. He also held various other administrative and committee assignments while at Purdue.

Shook is the Assoc. A.D. for Compliance and Student-Athlete Services. He oversees a staff of six who serve the academic support needs of Bowling Green's 400+ student-athletes. He also serves as the Sport Administrator for women's tennis and is responsible for the supervision, evaluation and overall management of the program. His other main duties include the administration of the Falcon Intern Program as well as coordination of the Annual Athletics Honors Night held each spring.

Shook serves on the Leadership Advisory Board at BGSU and has served on the New Professionals Leadership Institute advisory committee and Student Money Management Team as well. In addition, he serves as an instructor for the Student-Athlete Leadership Course developed in the spring of 2007. This course, offered only for student-athletes, enhances their effectiveness as student leaders through a leadership practices inventory and the study of various leadership styles to assist them in developing their own leadership potential as well as defining their own philosophy on leadership.

In July of 2006, Shook received the Professional Promise Award for Region III from the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A). The award honors professionals serving student-athletes who have shown extraordinary service to the N4A at the regional and/or national level; and outstanding performance as an academic advisor, life skills coordinator and/or administrator. Prior to his tenure at Purdue, Shook spent a year as an academic mentor in the Student-Athlete Support Services Office at the Ohio State University.

Shook and his wife, Emily, reside in Bowling Green with their daughters Madeline, Marissa and Morgan.

COACHING STAFF

Brian Daniels

Equipment Manager
Second Season

Brian Daniels begins his second year with the BGSU as the equipment manager.

He comes to Bowling Green after serving as the assistant manager of athletic equipment services at Colgate University.

Daniels, who earned a masters degree from Gardner-Webb University in 2004 in sport science and pedagogy, served in his role at Colgate since July of 2008. Prior to that time, he worked for a year as assistant equipment manager at the University at Buffalo. He was equipment manager and the tight ends coach at Gardner-Webb from July of 2001 through December of 2006.

Daniels is a member of the Athletic Equipment Manager's Association (AEMA) and a certified athletic equipment manager since 2009. He is married to Jill Daniels and the couple has three children – Hayden, Cameron, and Bailey.

Chris Zuccaro

Video Coordinator
Fourth Season

Chris Zuccaro enters his fourth season as BGSU's Football Video Coordinator. Zuccaro is responsible for overseeing all of the day to day video and technology needs for the football program including the filming and editing of games and practices, producing scouting cutups of opponents, and managing the program's DVSport video network.

He is a two-time MAC Video Coordinator of the Year, capturing the award in 2010 and 2011.

He and his student staff also produce highlight videos for the program and assist with the video needs of other areas of BGSU Athletics.

Prior to coming to BGSU, Zuccaro served as the Football Video Coordinator at Western Kentucky University from 2007 to 2008. While there, he oversaw the video and technology needs of the football team during its transition from the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS). He also assisted in the video and technology design of the new football operations building.

Prior to WKU, Zuccaro attended Ole Miss and worked as a student video assistant with the football program from 1999 until 2003. He then transferred to Southern Miss and served as the Sports Video Intern from 2004 until 2006.

While at USM, he assisted with the day to day operations of the Sports Video Department overseeing the video needs of all men's and women's sports; mainly the football program.

A native of Natchez, Mississippi, Zuccaro graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi in 2006 with a degree in Sport Administration. He and his wife, Jamie, have a daughter, Abigail.

OPPONENT INFORMATION • MAC

Providing leadership in education and diversity, the Mid-American Conference moves into its 66th year of service to the student-athlete.

Since its inception in 1946, the Mid-American Conference has progressively grown and developed into one of the most aggressive Division I conferences in the country. One of only 11 football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) conferences, the MAC named Dr. Jon A. Steinbrecher as its eighth commissioner in March of 2009.

The league has grown its commitment to championships by expanding to six its number of neutral site post season events – football (Ford Field, Detroit), volleyball (SPIRE Academy, Geneva, Ohio), men's and women's basketball (Quicken Loans Arena, Cleveland), softball (Firestone Stadium, Akron) and baseball (All Pro Freight Stadium, Avon, Ohio).

In 2011, the MAC set a conference record with a 4-1 record in bowl games and won the prestigious ESPN Bowl Challenge Cup for the best FBS conference record in bowl games. The MAC also tied a conference record for bowl invitations in a single season as the five bowl invitations marked the fourth time in conference history (2004, 2008, 2009, 2011). The five MAC programs that were extended bowl invitations included: Temple (Gildan New Mexico Bowl), Ohio (Famous Idaho Potato Bowl), Western Michigan (Little Caesars Pizza Bowl), Toledo (Military Bowl presented by Northrop Grumman) and Northern Illinois (GoDaddy.com Bowl).

The 2011 season also witnessed Northern Illinois win the 2011 Marathon MAC Football Championship Game with a 23-20 win over Ohio. MAC programs were a combined 4-0 against Army last season (wins by Northern Illinois, Miami, Ball State and Temple), while Temple had an impressive 38-7 win at Maryland (ACC), Western Michigan's 38-31 win at UConn (Big East), Ohio's 44-7 win over Marshall (Conference USA) and Ball State's 27-20 win over Indiana (Big Ten).

For the first time in its history, the MAC will have seven bowl relationships—three primary and four secondary. The three primary agreements are with the Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl (Detroit, Mich.), GoDaddy.com Bowl (Mobile, Ala.) and Famous Idaho Potato Bowl (Boise, Ida.). In addition, the MAC has secured secondary agreements with the BBVA Compass Bowl (2012-2013), the Gildan New Mexico Bowl (2012-2013), the Beef O'Brady's St. Petersburg Bowl (2012-13) and the TicketCity Bowl (2012).

In its partnership with ESPN, the MAC is in the fourth year of its eight-year rights agreement (through 2016-2017 academic years) for football, as well as men's and women's basketball. The deal is the most extensive in the 66-year history of the conference. The agreement calls for a minimum of 25 events annually to be produced and aired on an ESPN platform including the men's and women's basketball championships, a regular-season MAC presence on ESPN, the Marathon MAC Football Championship Game and a minimum of 11 regular-season football games.

In men's basketball, the MAC tied a conference record as six programs received invites to postseason tournaments, highlighted by Ohio's run to the NCAA Sweet 16 and an overtime loss to No. 1 seed North Carolina. Ohio reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Championship after tournament wins over Michigan and South Florida. The Bobcats became the first No. 13 seed to advance to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament since Bradley in 2006. The Bobcats also became the first team from the MAC to advance to the Sweet 16 since 2002. Ohio finished No. 25 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll, marking the first time the Bobcats have been ranked to end a season. The MAC had a total of six men's basketball programs reach the postseason in 2011-12: Ohio (NCAA), Akron (NIT), Bowling Green (CIT), Buffalo (CIT), Toledo (CIT) and Kent State (CIT). Buffalo's Mitchell Watt was named an honorable mention All-America by the Associated Press.

In baseball, Kent State won the MAC championship and earned an automatic bid to the NCAA baseball tournament and advanced to the College World Series in Omaha for the first time in program history and the first program from the MAC since 1976 (Eastern Michigan). The Golden Flashes began the postseason with a dramatic 7-6 win over No. 2 seed Kentucky in 21 innings in the Gary, Ind. Regional. Kent State went on to defeat Purdue and Kentucky for the second time to advance to the Super 16 Regional in Eugene, Ore. Kent State continued its dominance by winning the best-of-three game series over host Oregon to advance to the College World Series. In Omaha, Kent State opened with an 8-1 loss to South Carolina before defeating No. 1 seeded Florida, 5-4 to knock the Gators out of the postseason. Kent State finished with a 4-1 loss to South Carolina. In the process, Kent State finished the season ranked No. 6 in the nation by College Baseball and No. 8 by the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. A total of 18 MAC student-athletes were selected in Major League Baseball's 2012 Draft – including Buffalo C Tom Murphy (Colorado, 3rd Rd., 105th overall), Ohio RHP Seth Streich (Oakland, 6th Rd., 199th overall) and Kent State LHP David Starn (Atlanta, 7th Rd., 239th overall).

During the 2011-12 academic year, the University of Akron men's soccer team witnessed sophomore Darren Mattocks and junior Scott Caldwell earn All-America status as the Zips made their fourth consecutive appearance in the NCAA postseason Round of 16 with wins over Northwestern and SMU. Northern Illinois won the MAC Championship with a 1-0 win over Western Michigan, and earned an appearance in the NCAA tournament and defeated Western Illinois before falling to Creighton. The MAC announced the addition West Virginia as an affiliate member in men's soccer for the 2012-13 academic year as eight teams will compete in conference play.

In wrestling, Central Michigan won its eleventh consecutive MAC championship, while the MAC sent 24 wrestlers to the NCAA Division I Wrestling Championship. In addition, three grapplers secured All-America honors—Central Michigan's Ben Bennett (184), Kent State's Nic Bedelyon (125) and Ohio's Jeremy Johnson (285).

In men's cross country, Eastern Michigan claimed its 16th conference championship, while the Eagles captured their 30th conference title in men's swimming and diving. The 30 championship titles for Eastern Michigan in men's swimming and diving is a conference record. Western Michigan won its ninth conference championship in men's tennis, while Akron won both the men's indoor and outdoor track and field championships.

Kent State won its 20th MAC title in men's golf and received its 25th NCAA appearance. The No. 17 ranked Golden Flashes advanced to the match-play portion of the NCAA Championship and secured the highest finish in school history by tying for fifth in the nation. Kent State sophomore Corey Connors earned Honorable Mention by the GCAA.

Women's athletics continued to shine for the MAC this past year. The MAC had a total of five women's basketball programs invited to postseason tournaments. Eastern Michigan claimed the MAC tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament, while Bowling Green, Central Michigan, Miami and Toledo all received at-large invitations to the WNIT Tournament. The Toledo Rockets were the defending WNIT champions and began the 2012 WNIT Tournament with wins over Detroit, Cincinnati and VCU before falling to Syracuse in overtime in the WNIT 'Elite Eight'.

In volleyball, the MAC had a record four teams receive bids to the NCAA Volleyball Championship and finished with the highest conference ranking in RPI in conference history, finishing seventh. Central Michigan won the MAC tournament title and earned the programs first ever trip to the NCAA Tournament, while Ball State, Northern Illinois and Western Michigan each received at-large bids. Northern Illinois' Kristin Hoffman was named to the AVCA All-American Honorable Mention as well as the 2011 Capital One Academic All-America Division I Volleyball team.

Ohio won its sixth MAC conference title in field hockey, while Toledo claimed its fourth title in school history in women's cross country in record fashion. The Rockets scored a conference record-low 33 points and won back-to-back conference titles for the second time in school history. Also in women's cross country, Ohio's Juli Accurso finished 36th at the 2011 NCAA Division I Championship, earning her All-America status.

In women's soccer, Toledo earned its fourth MAC tournament title and lost to Marquette, 1-0 in overtime, in the NCAA Tournament first round. A pair of Toledo's women's soccer players received accolades with their selections to the 2011 NSCAA/NCAA Division I Women's All-Great Lakes Region Teams as junior defender Natalia Gaitan was named to the second team for a second-consecutive season, while sophomore forward Rachel MacLeod was tabbed to the third team.

In women's swimming and diving, Toledo won its second consecutive MAC tournament crown and witnessed senior Laura Lindsay earning All-American honors for the second year in a row. Kent State won both the women's indoor and outdoor track and field conference titles. In softball, Miami won the MAC tournament title.

Central Michigan won the MAC tournament title in gymnastics as the Chippewas advanced to the NCAA Regionals, while runner-up Kent State also competed in the NCAA Regionals. In women's tennis, Akron earned its first ever MAC tournament championship and trip to the NCAA tournament. In women's golf, Kent State won its 14th consecutive MAC tournament crown and finished 16th at the NCAA Tournament East Regional. Western Michigan's Kaylee Imel was selected to play in the 36th U.S. Women's Public Links Championship for the second consecutive year.

From two-time Super Bowl quarterback winning Ben Roethlisberger (Miami University), NFL Defensive MVP James Harrison (Kent State University), three NFL Pro Bowlers (Cleveland KR Josh Cribbs, San Diego TE Antonio Gates, Pittsburgh LB James Harrison), British Open winner Ben Curtis (Kent State University), World Series winning manager Bob Brenly (Ohio University) and Olympic bobsled team member Brock Kreitzburg (University of Toledo), the Mid-American Conference continues to excel in producing leaders in the world of athletics.

History of the MAC

Based in Cleveland since July 1999 following a 15-year stay in Toledo, Ohio, the MAC has established historic measurements in both football and men's and women's basketball since moving to Northeast Ohio. The MAC was founded as a five-school league on February 24, 1946 in Columbus, Ohio with Ohio, Butler, Cincinnati, Wayne State and Western Reserve admitted as charter members. The Mid-American Conference has 12 full-time schools and a 13th, UMass for football only beginning in 2012.

In 1946 men's basketball was the first competitive sport in the MAC, which now sponsors a total 23 sports. Women's sports were brought into the conference's structure in 1980. For men, championships (11) are sponsored in football, basketball, baseball, cross country, soccer, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, wrestling, golf and tennis. For women, championships (12) are sponsored in basketball, softball, vol-

The Bowling Green State University football team opened the 2011 season in impressive fashion, defeating Idaho 32-15 in the Kibbie Dome. The Falcons scored 30 unanswered points to lead 30-7 at the half.

Idaho went 78 yards in six plays on its first possession to go ahead 7-0, but Bowling Green took over from there. Eugene Cooper had a 76-yard reception with 7:38 left in the first quarter to tie the score and then caught a 24-yard pass with 1:33 left in the first for a 14-7 lead.

Jordan Hopgood scored from nine yards out in the second and Anthon Samuel punched it in from a yard away for a 27-7 lead. Kyle Burkhardt made a 39-yard field goal with 4:28 left in the first half for a 30-7 lead.

In the second half, Bowling Green's only scoring came on a Chris Jones quarterback sack for a safety in the fourth quarter.

Samuel finished the game with 22 carries for 141 yards. Matt Schilz was 19-of-31 for 291 yards and Cooper had four catches for 110 yards.

The Bowling Green State University football team improved to 2-0 on the season by vaulting to an early lead and cruising to a 58-13 victory over the Morgan State Bears.

Matt Schilz had four touchdown passes in the first quarter, three of them to Eugene Cooper, and the Falcons led 14-0 early and then 28-7 after the first quarter. Schilz ended the first half with five touchdowns; his fifth, in the second quarter, also went to Cooper.

After Morgan State went three-and-out to start the game, BGSU cruised down the field for 75 yards on seven plays in just 2:30. Schilz hit Eugene Cooper on a deep slant across the middle for 37 yards to give the Falcons a lead they would never relinquish.

The Bowling Green State University football team scored on a Matt Schilz to Ray Hutson pass with just 2.1 seconds left in regulation, but the ensuing extra point attempt was blocked as the Wyoming Cowboys defeated the Falcons, 28-27.

The Falcons committed six turnovers and committed several key penalties. The team also had a blocked field goal in addition to the blocked extra point. Despite the penalties, Bowling Green showed moxie by nearly coming back from a 14-point deficit in the fourth quarter.

In that quarter alone, with nothing to do but pass, Matt Schilz showed off his arm by passing for 215 yards. He completed 21 of 30 throws in the final 15 minutes. In the frame, Kamar Jorden caught five balls for 50 yards and a touchdown, while Eugene Cooper took in six passes for 56 yards.

The Bowling Green State University football team created momentum-swinging plays in all phases of the game, capped off by a school-record 96-yard touchdown run by Anthon Samuel, as the Falcons defeated the Miami University RedHawks, 37-23, in the Mid-American Conference opener for both teams.

The Falcons carried a slim 20-17 lead into halftime, but Miami returned the second-half kickoff to the BGSU 22. Six plays later, Miami was at Bowling Green's one-yard line and threatened to take the lead. On fourth down, Zac Dysert pitched to Erik Finklea. DeVon McKoy and Keith Morgan immediately chased Finklea backwards and caught him at the ten yard line to give Bowling Green the ball on downs.

Matt Schilz followed the stout defensive play with a steady 16-play, 89 yard drive for a touchdown that gave BGSU a 14 point lead. Schilz capped off the drive, which took 8:13 off the clock, with a seven yard pass to Kamar Jorden. The key play on the drive was a third-and-eight pass of 24 yards to Eugene Cooper.

The Bowling Green State University football team dropped a 55-10 decision Saturday afternoon to West Virginia inside Milan Puskar Stadium.

The Falcons fumbled the opening kickoff, but the BGSU defense held strong, holding WVU to a 30-yard field goal. On the ensuing kickoff BooBoo Gates went 77 yards, setting up an 18-yard touchdown pass from Matt Schilz to Ray Hutson for an early 7-3 BG lead.

West Virginia went three-and-out on their next drive and the Falcons answered with an 11-play drive, ending on a 21-yard field goal by Steven Stein.

The Mountaineers scored the next 52 points to capture the 55-10 victory.

The Bowling Green State University football team hung with Toledo throughout a closely-fought Battle of I-75, but a fourth quarter interception led to a quick Rockets score and the deciding margin in a 28-21 Toledo victory.

The Falcons played stout defense when it mattered most in the first half and allowed the team to go into the locker room with a 7-0 halftime lead. In the second half, the offense responded twice to Toledo scores in a game where only a few plays made the difference.

Bowling Green's offense earned 343 yards on 75 plays, including 123 yards on 33 rushes and 220 yards on 42 pass attempts.

Schilz was 21-for-42 with a touchdown and an interception. Jorden and Eugene Cooper each caught seven passes. Jorden led the team with 106 yards receiving. Anthon Samuel was BGSU's leading rusher with 105 yards on 25 carries.

The Bowling Green State University football team rode a stout defense and timely offense to a 13-10 upset of the Temple Owls at Doyt L. Perry Stadium on Saturday (Oct. 22).

The Falcons held Temple without a point through halftime and out of the end zone until the fourth quarter. After the Owls finally pulled ahead 10-6 and an exchange of punts, the Falcons drove 56 yards in five plays for the winning score.

That score came on a textbook fade pass from Matt Schilz to Shaun Joplin. The 24-yard throw came on a fourth-and-nine.

Temple was held under their season averages in both rushing and passing, while the Falcons surpassed what Temple had allowed per game prior to visiting Bowling Green.

The Bowling Green State University football team dropped a 27-15 decision to the Kent State Golden Flashes. The Mid-American Conference contest was held inside Dix Stadium in Kent, Ohio.

The Falcons (4-5, 2-3 MAC) totaled 445 yards of total offense, including 400 passing, but had four turnovers and made numerous mistakes on special teams in the conference loss.

In all, the Orange and Brown threw two interceptions, had two fumbles, two kickoffs landed out of bounds and missed a pair of field goals in the game that came down to the final drive. The Falcons also came away with just six points on four redzone opportunities.

The Bowling Green State University football team fell on Tuesday evening (Nov. 8) to the Northern Illinois Huskies, 45-14, in a cross-divisional Mid-American Conference battle.

The game began well enough for the Falcons. On the opening play from scrimmage, Matt Schilz passed to Kamar Jordan, who ran untouched for an 83-yard score -- the fifth-longest touchdown pass in team history.

However, just two plays later, the Huskies tied the game at seven when Willie Clark caught a 56-yard pass from Chandler Harnish with 14:00 left in the opening frame.

The Huskies opened a 24-7 lead and never looked back.

 Ohio - Weller 23 yard field goal, 0:00, 4th

The Bowling Green State University football team lost a hard-fought battle with the Ohio Bobcats. The lead changed hands five times. The last came on a game-winning field goal as time expired, which gave Ohio a 29-28 win in the Falcons' final home game of the 2011 season.

After Ohio forced a punt on the opening drive, the Orange and Brown created a turnover on the Bobcats' second play from scrimmage. Chris Jones stripped Tyler Tettleton, and Dwayne Woods recovered at OU's 22 yard line.

Matt Schilz connected with Anthon Samuel to the 10, and a late hit penalty pushed the ball to the five. From there, Schilz passed over the middle to Tyler Beck for the game's opening points and a 7-0 lead.

The Bowling Green State University football team defeated the University at Buffalo 42-28, out-scoring the Bulls 38-3 in a span of 35 minutes. The Mid-American Conference game was held at UB Stadium in Buffalo, N.Y.

The Bulls had a 17-7 lead one minute into the second quarter before the Falcons added two second quarter touchdowns and three more scores in the third period. All five of those touchdowns were with the wind, which played a major factor throughout the game.

The turning point in the game came with the Falcons trailing 17-7 as Buffalo lined up for a punt. Senior Ray Hutson, who was playing in his final game, got his hands on the punt to give the Falcons the ball at the UB-28 yard line. The next play Matt Schilz found Eugene Cooper on a 28-yard score.

BGSU HISTORY

BGSU HISTORY • FALCON TRADITION

Scott Mruczkowski and Mike Thaler celebrate the Falcons' 28-24 Motor City Bowl win over Northwestern in 2003. It marked the first-time in MAC history that a league school ever faced a Big Ten opponent in the post-season.

Since Frederick G. Beyerman, an instructor in the physical education department and the first athletic director, announced in July, 1919 that Bowling Green State Normal College would field an intercollegiate football team, a rich tradition has developed.

From that very first team, to the first squad to go unbeaten in 1928, to the first perfect record of the 1959 national college division champions, to, most recently, back-to-back seasons of nationally ranked division IA football.

From former head coach Warren Steller, to Max Minnich, the first BGSU player to be drafted by a professional team, to Fred Durig, the first All-America selection, to legendary head coach Doyt Perry, to Paul Miles, the only football player ever to have his jersey retired, to Dave Preston, the career rushing leader, to record-setting quarterback Brian McClure, to head coach Dave Clawson, to Freddie Barne a 2009 Biletnikoff Finalist and NCAA record holder for catches in a season (155) the Bowling Green State University football program has a tradition as rich as any in the Mid-American Conference, and many programs nationally.

Since 19 of the 30 males enrolled at Normal College banded together to form that first team, many different people, players, and games have combined to mold the lore of football at BGSU.

The following paragraphs will touch on many of the people and games which carved the Falcon football history.

The program got off to a rocky start losing its first seven games played.

Franklin Skibbie scored the first touchdown with BG's only points in the 10-6 loss to Findlay in the 1920 season opener.

That team would post a 7-0 win over Kent State Normal College (Kent State) in the season finale to record the first win.

The 1921 squad was the first to win a conference title capturing the Northwest Conference championship with wins over Defiance, Findlay, and Toledo. BG posted a shutout of Findlay, scoring a school-record 151 points in one of the most talked-about games in school history. In the season opener against Kent State, played behind what is now Ridge Street School, the Falcons played possibly the quietest game in school history when all fans were prohibited from making noise because of an illness in the neighborhood.

The following season, BG held its first homecoming game on Nov. 4, 1922, which was played at the Fairgrounds. Bowling Green and Toledo battled to a 6-6 deadlock.

After having a different coach in each of its first five seasons, Warren Steller was selected to coach the 1924 squad, the beginning of a very successful 11-year tenure, the second-longest in school history. Steller was the first BGSU head coach to have an assistant when Paul Landis was hired in 1925.

Brian McClure is one of only two players in MAC history (both from BG) to earn league MVP honors twice.

Led by Chet Chapman, the first BG player to earn first team All-Ohio honors, the 1928 team posted the first unbeaten record while allowing just 18 points in seven games.

In 1936, the federal government offered to help Bowling Green financially in the construction of a new football stadium and the Trustees accepted the offer. University Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 23, 1937 and served as the home of Falcon football until 1966 when Doyt L. Perry Stadium was built. University Stadium was located in what is now the center of campus directly west of Jerome Library.

BGSU HISTORY • FALCON TRADITION

Urban Meyer served as head coach for the Falcons in 2001 and 2002 and guided BGSU to a 17-6 record and a No. 16 ranking in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll in 2002.

In 1941, Robert Whittaker was named the head coach at Bowling Green after compiling an 11-year record of 89-19-2 at Sandusky High School. Whittaker's first of his 14 teams (the longest tenure in school history) tied Case Western Reserve for the Ohio Conference title and was thought to be one of the best teams ever, scoring 173 while allowing just 40.

After back-to-back losing seasons in 1953 and 1954, Doyt Perry began his legendary career as the Falcon head coach in 1955 and made an immediate impact. BG posted a 7-1-1 record, scoring 224 points while allowing only 53. This came on the heels of a 2-7 record the previous season.

Perry, whose teams never lost more than two games in any of his 10 seasons, led his 1959 squad to the first perfect record in school history at 9-0-0. In the process, the Falcons were named the mythical small college national champions by the Washington, D.C. Touchdown Club.

BG's closest game that season was a Mid-American Conference victory at Ohio University by a 13-9 count to wrap up the perfect season and national honor.

The following season, BG came within one game of repeating as national champions losing only a 14-7 decision to OU at home as the Bobcats claimed top national honors.

In 1961, Bowling Green played in its first bowl game, the Mercy Bowl at the Los Angeles Coliseum. The game against Fresno State was played to raise money to help defray the expenses of the families of 16 members of the Cal Poly San Luis Obispo football team who perished in a plane crash shortly after takeoff from Toledo

One of the most significant wins in school history was the 17-13 victory over 18th-ranked Purdue in 1972. A fourth quarter field goal by Don Taylor was the difference for Coach Don Nebhen and his Falcons.

Express Airport after a 1960 game against BG.

The game netted $170,000 for the memorial fund.

The arrival of a skinny, much-heralded quarterback from Ravenna, Ohio in 1982 signaled the beginning of an 11-year period in which the Falcons would make four bowl appearances.

The quarterback was Brian McClure and all he would do in the next four seasons was lead the Falcons to a 34-12 record, a 19-1 record at home, two bowl games, and become only the second quarterback in NCAA history to pass for over 10,000 yards.

He became the starter in the third game of his freshman season, and despite missing the last two games of the regular season, he became the first freshman to be named a first-team all-league quarterback.

On Oct. 24 and 25, 2003, ESPN's College Gameday made its home south of Doyt L. Perry Stadium. That marked the first time in MAC history that the nation's most watched college football pre-game show visited a league venue.

BGSU HISTORY • FALCON TRADITION

Paul Miles is second on the BG career rushing list with 3,238 yards while he is also the only football player to have his number retired. At the time of his graduation, he was only the third running back in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons.

He would rewrite the BG and MAC record books before his career was over, setting five NCAA records as well. McClure still holds numerous school and MAC records.

In 1991, Gary Blackney was tabbed as the 14th head football coach, and much like the arrival of McClure, he made an immediate impact on the program.

In his first season, he took a team which compiled a 3-5-2 mark the previous season and molded them into an 11-1 squad, going undefeated in the MAC while winning the program's first bowl game.

The following season was more of the same as the Falcons were again perfect in league play and a win over Nevada in the first Las Vegas Bowl made it back-to-back bowl victories. The 1993 squad would extend the conference winning streak to a league-record 19 games while going unbeaten in the first 22 MAC games of Blackney's tenure.

Urban Meyer took over the reins of the Falcon program in 2001 and engineered the top turnaround in Division IA. The Falcons opened the Meyer era with an impressive road win at Missouri and followed that up with wins over Buffalo and Temple, surpassing their victory total of the previous year.

BGSU posted its first winning season since 1994 when it reeled off three straight wins to end the season. The Falcons' 43-42 victory at Northwestern made them the first MAC team to ever defeat three teams from BCS conferences in a single season. The Falcons ended the season six days later with a 56-21 pasting of MAC Champion Toledo.

In 2002, BGSU roared to an 8-0 start including wins over Missouri and Kansas and were ranked in both the AP and Coaches polls at the same time for the first time in school history.

Meyer's offensive coordinator, Gregg Brandon, took over as head coach in December, 2002, and guided the Falcons to their first-ever MAC West title and Motor City Bowl Championship and finished ranked in the top 25 (No. 23) in both major polls at the end of a season for the first-time in school history.

One player who links Blackney, Meyer and Brandon was All-American quarterback Josh Harris. The Westerville, Ohio native came to BGSU with the intention of sitting out the 2000 season as a redshirt, but was pressed into duty when injuries decimated the Falcon backfield.

Serving as a running back and kick returner for the bulk of the season, Harris showed signs of greatness in glimpses and even started his first career game on ESPN against Toledo.

Meyer took over the program the following season and inserted Harris into the starting Coach Gregg Brandon and assistant coach Dennis Springer celebrate the Falcons' 27-26 win over No. 16 Purdue.

The Mid-American Conference title won by the 1991 team was the first of two consecutive championships. The 1991 team won all eight of its MAC games, the first of what would turn into a league-record 19-game winning streak.

lineup for good in the ninth game of the season and watched his team win 11 straight games over the next two seasons and earn its first national ranking since 1985.

The Motor City Bowl MVP guided the Falcons to a 6-1 record in three seasons as a starter against BCS competition.

The 2003 season gave BGSU its highest national profile and elevated the program to new heights. Longtime Falcon fans have viewed the program's 1972 win over the Boilermakers as one of the biggest in BGSU history.

Well, lightning strikes twice. While Purdue entered the day with a No. 16 national ranking and visions of BCS aspirations dancing in their heads, the Falcons were able to keep it close and the Falcons converted twice on fourth down, Charles Sharon hauls in this 32-yard touchdown pass with 2:08 left in BGSU's upset win over Purdue in 2003.

BGSU HISTORY • FALCON TRADITION

All-American quarterback Josh Harris takes a 48-yard TD pass from Cole Magner in the Falcons' 2003 win over Toledo. Harris was responsible for more than 100 TDs during his career.

capped by a 32-yard miracle pass-and-catch from Harris to Charles Sharon with 2:08 remaining to post a 27-26 win.

The Falcons were back into the national spotlight with a No. 23 ranking by the AP and a showdown with undefeated and No. 12 Northern Illinois showed so much promise that ESPN's College Gameday made Bowling Green its home for the weekend. For the first time in 20 years, Doyt Perry Stadium was sold out and the game was shown on ESPN2.

All-American Janssen Patton set an NCAA record by picking off three passes in a game for the third time in his career and Harris directed the BGSU offense flawlessly as the Falcons prevailed 34-18 in just the second-ever regular season meeting between two nationally-ranked MAC schools. The Falcons would spend the next seven weeks in both national polls and were ranked 24th in the final BCS standings.

All-American quarterback Omar Jacobs set an NCAA record by throwing 41 TD passes with just four interceptions in 2004. He was named MVP of the 2004 GMAC Bowl as BGSU defeated Memphis, 52-35.

In what would be the most meaningful game in the history of the BGSU/Toledo rivalry, a national TV audience and another sellout crowd would witness the first meeting in which the two schools played the final game of the regular season for an outright championship.

The Falcons rallied in the fourth quarter in front of a second home sellout crowd to post a 31-23 win over arch rival Toledo. That would secure the Falcons' first-ever MAC Championship game appearance at home against No. 12 Miami.

Tyler Sheehan finished his career with a 64.7 percent completion percentage, best in school history, while adding 10,117 yards and 70 touchdowns in three years as the Falcons' starting QB.

In the MAC's first-ever battle with the Big Ten in post-season play, Harris earned MVP honors completing a bowl record 38 passes as the Falcons posted a 28-24 win over Northwestern. The victory allowed the Falcons to finish a season in both the AP and Coaches polls for the first time in school history.

In 2004, BGSU once again enjoyed the national spotlight when they opened the season on the road at Oklahoma in a game that was televised by ABC. While the Falcons fell 40-24 to a team which would play for the national title, a new era was ushered in that day.

Sophomore quarterback Omar Jacobs, in his first collegiate start, would hold his own that day with Heisman Trophy winner Jason White. Jacobs would go on to earn All-American honors and MAC Offensive Player of the Year recognition after throwing for a national best 41 TD passes. He completed 309-of-462 passes for a BGSU record 4,002 yards.

Following a 1-2 start, BGSU erupted for a 70-16 victory at Temple, won their next seven games, and were ranked by both AP and ESPN for the third straight year.

Lee Corso (left) and Kirk Herbstreit were part of the ESPN team which broadcast the 2003 MAC Championship game from Doyt Perry Stadium.

BGSU HISTORY • YEAR-BY-YEAR RECORDS

BGSU would earn its second straight bowl berth and played Memphis in the GMAC Bowl. In its first game ever against a Conference USA opponent, Jacobs would throw for five TDs and 365 yards and the Falcon defense would limit the Tigers to seven points in the second half as BGSU won 52-35. The Falcons were one of a MAC record five teams selected to participate in a post-season contest.

BGSU began the 2005 season ranked 23rd by Sports Illustrated and Jacobs was featured in ESPN The Magazine.

In 2007, the Falcons were picked to finish fifth in the Mid-American Conference East preseason polls, but following a 32-31 win over Minnesota to open the season, the Falcons rolled to a MAC East co-Division Championship, going 6-2, and advancing to their third bowl appearance in five seasons, finishing 2007 with an 8-5 record.

Like 2007, in 2008 the Falcons opened the season with a bang, downing No. 25 Pittsburgh, 27-17, the Falcons' first win over a ranked team since 2003. The same season the Orange and Brown hosted Minnesota, the first time in school history that a Big Ten team ventured into Doyt Perry Stadium. BGSU finished the 2008 season with a 6-6 record, ushering in a new era with the hiring of Dave Clawson on Dec. 12, 2008.

Clawson's first year will be a memorable one, opening the year with a 31-14 win versus Troy, while finishing 6-2 in the MAC and advancing to the 2009 Humanitarian Bowl in Boise, Idaho. Clawson helped lead an offense that helped Freddie Barnes record 155 catches in 13 games, a new NCAA record, breaking the old mark of 142, held by Manny Hazard (Houston) since 1989.

Barnes' top moment came on Oct. 10, 2009 at Kent State when he caught 22 passes for 278 yards, one catch shy of the all-time NCAA record. Barnes rode the NCAA record all the way to a Fred Biletnikoff Award finalist, given to the nation's top wide receiver.

All-American wide receiver Freddie Barnes caught 155 passes in 2009, smashing the previous NCAA mark (142) for catches in a season.

In a one-time game to help defray the expenses (burial and medical) of families of the 16 members of the Cal Poly San Luis Obispo football team who perished in a plane crash, Oct. 29, 1960, shortly after takeoff from Toledo Express Airport, Bowling Green and Fresno State, the undefeated champion of the California Collegiate Athletic Association, met at the historic Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

Playing before its largest crowd in school history, the Falcons, six-point favorites, were guilty, uncharacteristically, of six turnovers, which was the difference in the game. BG's defense, which was ranked fourth in the nation, yielded 468 yards, 196 more than it had given up to any opponent during the season. Quarterbacks Beau Carter and Jon Anabo were thorns in BG's side all day passing for 368 yards and two touchdowns. Carter ran for two scores, also.

BG scored its only points early in the second stanza on the two-yard run by Ray Bell which was set up on a long pass play between Larry Smith and quarterback Jim Potts.

BG fumbled on its next two possessions with FSU turning the second miscue into a touchdown on a long pass play. Bowling Green did have a pass dropped in the end zone as the first half ended which would have given them the lead. Fresno State then scored 1:44 apart midway through the third period to put the game away, the second score set up by a fumbled snap on an attempted punt. The contest netted $170,000 for the memorial fund which aided the survivors and the relatives of the victims of the plane crash. Cal Poly SLO had played at Bowling Green the afternoon before the crash.

After a full week of events leading up to the meeting with the Pacific Coast Athletic Association champion Fresno State, the Falcons entered the game against the Bulldogs a two-touchdown underdog.

The Falcons also had to contend with a partisan sea of red squeezed into Bulldog Stadium, the home of Fresno State.

But, the Falcons drew first blood converting a Jac Tomasello interception on the final play of the first quarter into the first touchdown of the game, a Chip Otten four-yard run capping a 48-yard drive. The Falcons took a 14-0 lead to the locker room after driving 73 yards on their next possession. Sophomore quarterback Brian McClure connected with John Meek on the scoring play.

BG looked to be in the driver's seat after McClure connected with Shawn Potts from five yards out in the third stanza. But, Fresno State answered BG's score with their first of the contest later in the quarter.

Bowling Green came right back as Potts picked up a fumble by receiver Greg Taylor at the five-yard line and ran it in to put the Falcons back up by three touchdowns.

With Fresno State pinned back on its own 20-yard line and facing a third-and-ten, a Falcon stop might have put the final nail in the Fresno State coffin. But, FSU gained 15 yards on the third-down play and the comeback was on.

With future NFL receiver Stephone Paige running and catching a pass for a touchdown, FSU closed to within six points with three minutes left.

This third quarter fumble recovery by Stu Tolle set up the third Falcon touchdown giving the Falcons a 21-0 lead over Fresno State in the 1982 California Bowl.

BG used up just 1:05 of the clock on its next possession and FSU moved 45 yards in eight plays with Jeff Tedford finding Vince Wesson over the middle with 11 seconds left. Scott Darrow's PAT was the deciding point.

BG gained just 26 yards on nine plays in the fourth quarter while FSU gained 220 of its 453 yards in the final 15 minutes.

An indication of what was ahead for the Falcons in the game came early in the first quarter when, trailing 7-0, they drove to the Bulldog one-yard line where they fumbled the ball away in the end zone, the first of five on the day and the same number they had committed in the first 11 games of the season. Fresno State would score the next 37 points before BG would hit paydirt.

Not even being a double-digit underdog against Fresno State could keep the Falcons from completing its storybook season under first-year head coach Gary Blackney.

And the script for this game was all Hollywood.

The first quarter would have led the fans to believe it might take 40 or 50 points to win the game as the Falcons scored touchdowns on their first two possessions and the Bulldogs would get one of those back before the quarter was over.

The scoring continued early in the second stanza as BG's Erik White and Mark Szlachcic hooked up for a second time. But, FSU came right back on their next possession with Anthony Daigle running 57 yards to cut the deficit in half going to the lockerroom.

The defenses took over in the third quarter, each allowing just 65 yards total offense. Late in the quarter, FSU placekicker Derek Mahoney missed a 26-yard field goal, the most significant scoring opportunity of the quarter.

BG scored early in the final stanza moving 80 yards after the missed field goal to build another 14-point lead.

FSU came right back to score, driving 71 yards as quarterback Mark Barsotti completed five-of-six passes, connecting with tight end Marty Thompson from five yards out.

After three changes of possession, FSU started the final drive of the game from their one-yard line, after an interception, with 2:29 remaining.

FSU used its last time out with 24 seconds left and the Bulldogs just nine yards away from the needed touchdown. After a running play for six yards and two incomplete passes, the final play of the game would determine the outcome with three seconds left.

The BG defense rose to the occasion covering all FSU receivers and Barsotti threw incomplete with BG linebacker Kevin O'Brien pressuring. It was BG's first bowl win.

BG won its 11th game making Blackney one of only three coaches in NCAA history to win 11 games in their first season as a head coach.

In the inaugural Las Vegas Bowl, which replaced the California Bowl, the Falcons faced the high-powered offense of the University of Nevada.

In a game in which the punting game took center stage, the Falcons won the first half and Nevada the second half, but a late BG touchdown proved to be the difference.

The Falcons scored on their first four possessions to grab a 28-3 halftime lead. BG had 267 first-half yards to just 116 for the Wolfpack as they had an 18-6 edge in first downs.

In the second half, it was Nevada quarterback Chris Vargas' turn. He had engineered six Nevada comeback victories in three years coming off the bench, including an NCAA-record 35-point comeback against Weber State.

BGSU HISTORY • BOWL GAMES

Nevada scored three touchdowns in the third quarter with punts of five and seven yards by BG setting up the first two scores. The Wolfpack's third score was set up by a high snap from center on a BG punt.

Nevada finally took the lead with 12:41 left in the game and looked to possibly put the game away with a field goal with 7:13 left, ending their run of 31 unanswered points.

Bowling Green then moved to the Nevada six-yard line before turning the ball over on downs. After holding the Wolfpack to one first down, Nevada punter Steve Lester had the center snap go through his hands setting up the Falcons at the Wolfpack 15-yard line with 1:45 remaining.

A 12-yard Erik White to Mark Szlachcic connection on first down put the Falcons on the three-yard line. After two runs and a pass did not net any yardage, White found Dave Hankins alone in the back of the end zone on fourth down with 22 seconds left. Placekicker Brian Leaver made the PAT for the winning points and BG's second consecutive bowl win.

marked the third fourth-quarter rally for BGSU against a Big Ten squad (Northwestern in 2001 and Purdue in 2003). Magner also set a game record for catches, finishing with 12 for 97 yards and two touchdowns.

Jason Wright ran for 237 yards on 21 carries and finished with 336 all-purpose yards for Northwestern. He had a 77-yard TD run - the second-longest run in Motor City Bowl history - to give the Wildcats a 17-7 lead early in the third quarter and an 88-yard kickoff return early in the fourth to set up Noah Herron's 2-yard touchdown run that made it 24-21.

Bowling Green used two 80-yard scoring drives to take a 21-17 lead early in the fourth. Harris threw a 7-yard TD pass to Magner, and put the Falcons on top with an 11-yarder to Steve Sanders.

Northwestern opened the scoring on Herron's 40-yard fourth-down run in the first quarter, and made it 10-0 on Brian Huffman's 31-yard field goal. Bowling Green answered with a 67-yard drive, capped by Harris' 4-yard run.

Omar Jacobs went from Bowling Green's question mark to the Mid-American Conference's latest star quarterback. Jacobs capped a marvelous sophomore season by passing for 365 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Falcons to a 52-35 victory over Memphis in the GMAC Bowl.

The Falcons (9-3) turned a shootout into a blowout after leading 35-28 at halftime to win their fourth consecutive bowl game. Jacobs got them started with four first-half touchdown passes - two apiece to Charles Sharon and Steve Sanders helped carry them the rest of the way. Pope ran 28 times for 151 yards and a pair of 1-yard touchdowns. He also caught a 13-yard pass for the only score of the third quarter. The Tigers (8-4), playing in back-to-back bowl games for the first time, couldn't keep up with the nation's No. 4 offense, which totaled 558 total yards.

Jacobs, whose 41 touchdown passes led the nation and set a Mid-American Conference record, completed 26-of-44 passes with an interception to earn Most Valuable Player honors.

At halftime, the teams seemed poised to take aim at the 2001 GMAC Bowl, the highest scoring bowl game in history with 125 combined points for Marshall and East Carolina. The offenses stopped themselves early in the third quarter. Jacobs threw only his fourth interception of the season to give the Tigers the ball at Bowling Green's 41. Memphis tried to go for it on fourth down but was twice penalized for having 12 men on the field. Bowling Green made it 42-28 on the ensuing possession with Pope slipping underneath for a 13-yard touchdown catch on third-and-7. The Tigers then squandered another trip across midfield when a scrambling Wimprine fumbled the ball and Bowling Green's Mike Thaler recovered 31 yards behind the line of scrimmage to set up a field goal. Even the weather

The Falcons enjoy the post-game celebration following their 52-35 victory over Memphis in the 2004 GMAC Bowl. Game MVP Omar Jacobs threw a bowl-record five TD tosses.

Hurricane Paul Smith and the nation's top-rated offense turned a little charity into a lot of history in the GMAC Bowl.

Smith had his NCAA-record 14th consecutive 300-yard passing game, and Tulsa converted four fumble recoveries into first-half touchdowns on the way to a 63-7 win over Bowling Green in the 2007 GMAC Bowl.

With all that help, the Golden Hurricane (10-4) ran up a 35-0 halftime lead and capped coach Todd Graham's first season by reaching 10 wins for the first time since 1991.

Smith passed for 312 yards and five touchdowns. He broke the record of 13 300-yard efforts in a row he shared with BYU's Ty Detmer, whose streak stretched over the 1989 and 1990 seasons.

He and Tarrion Adams joined Houston's David Klingler and Chuck Weatherspoon as the NCAA's only 5,000-yard passing and 1,000-yard rushing tandem.

Tulsa outgained Bowling Green (8-5) 562-229 in total yards.

Adams scored touchdowns running, passing and receiving before halftime and ran for 112 yards. Trae Johnson caught two scoring passes.

Bowling Green, which had won four consecutive bowl games, lost three fumbles in its own territory in the first quarter and never recovered.

Quarterback Tyler Sheehan was helped off the field with a left ankle injury with 24 seconds left in the first half and didn't return. Sheehan passed for 141 yards and ran for another 21.

Still throwing the ball despite the large lead late in the fourth quarter, the Golden Hurricanes became the first team in NCAA history to have a 5,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000-yard receivers. Smith came in needing 247 yards along with 45 yards receiving from Charles Clay, who reached the milestone with several catches midway through the fourth quarter and finished with 11 for 69 yards.

The Mid-American Conference had won five of six GMAC Bowls before the Falcons' fall.

Down 42-0, Bowling Green got on the board when Roger Williams scored on a 78-yard kick return early in the third quarter for the Falcons' only points. It was the first kickoff return for a touchdown in the history of the GMAC Bowl.

Despite the loss the 2007 season was a very impressive one for the Orange and Brown, who finished the year with an 8-5 record, matching Central Michigan for the most overall wins in the conference.

The Falcons, who were picked to finish fifth in the East Division, finished MAC play with a 6-2 record, finishing in a three-way tie for tops among the East.

Roger Williams scores on a 78 yard kickoff return, the first-ever kickoff return for a touchdown in the history of the GMAC Bowl.

The Bowling Green State University football team got a 51-yard touchdown from Freddie Barnes with 32 seconds remaining to take a 42-35 lead but surrendered a late touchdown with four seconds to go, as well as a two-point conversion, to fall 43-42 to the Idaho Vandals in the 2009 Rody's Humanitarian Bowl in Boise, Idaho.

BGSU rallied back from a 28-14 and 35-28 deficits to lead with 32 seconds to go but the Vandals drove 66 yards on three plays, including a 50-yard strike to open the drive to get within one at 42-41. After a timeout the Vandals elected to go for two, converting in the back of the endzone for the winning score.

The Falcons opened the scoring with senior quarterback Tyler Sheehan hooking up with Biletnikoff finalist Freddie Barnes on a 35-yard touchdown. Sheehan would call Barnes' number 16 more times, finishing with a Humanitarian Bowl record 17 receptions for 219 yards (both Humanitarian Bowl records), while Sheehan completed 33-of-47 passes for 387 yards and four touchdowns.

Barnes would finish the season with 155 receptions, smashing the all-time NCAA mark of 142, held by Manny Hazzard (Houston) since 1989. For his efforts he was named BGSU's Rody's Humanitarian Bowl Most Valuable Player.

Following a Vandal touchdown junior Willie Geter scampered 59 yards for a score to spot the Orange and Brown a 14-7 lead at the end of one quarter. It was Geter's second longest run of the season.

Neither team would get back on the scoreboard until Idaho's Nathan Enderle connected with wide receiver Eric Greenwood on a seven-yard fade route with 19 seconds remaining in the first half to finish the first half at 14 apiece.

Idaho started the second half off with a bang, scoring a pair of touchdowns in a four minute span to go up 28-14 with 5:30 minutes to go in the third quarter, a spot Bowling Green has seen before answered. Much like the contest with Kent State and Buffalo, BGSU would have to find a way to rally from a double-digit deficit, a deficit they would erase in a hurry.

First, Sheehan connected with fellow classmate Jimmy Scheidler on a 15-yard touchdown with just over three minutes remaining in the third quarter and then found Barnes on an out-route at 12:15 in the fourth to knot the score at 28 apiece.

The Vandals would answer back with a 74-yard drive to once again take the lead, this time, 35-28 with 8:32 to go in the game.

A two-yard Geter touchdown, his second of the game, pushed the score to 35-35 and following a stop by the BGSU defense Sheehan and the Falcons marched 80 yards to take a 42-35 lead with 32 seconds remaining before the final winning drive by Idaho.

DOYT L. PERRY

1988 College Football Hall of Fame Inductee

The year 1988 will be fondly remembered by many who are associated with the football program at BGSU. That year Doyt L. Perry, a former player, coach and administrator was recognized by the National Football Foundation with its top honor, induction into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Perry traveled to New York in December of 1988 for the Foundation's Hall of Fame dinner and was officially enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in June, 1989, in ceremonies held at Kings Island, Ohio.

Perry's association with BGSU dates back to the 1920s when he lettered nine times in three sports (football, basketball and baseball). The Croton, Ohio native received his degree in 1932. He began coaching on the high school level before becoming an assistant at Ohio State in 1951.

Perry returned to his alma mater in 1955, leading the football program to a 77-11-5 (.855) record over the next 11 years. His teams won five Mid-American Conference titles and one national college division championship in 1959. Perry's winning percentage ranks fifth on the all-time NCAA list.

Perry, who retired from coaching in 1964 to become BGSU's athletic director, developed such outstanding coaches as Bill Mallory, Don Nehlen, Larry Smith, and the late Dave McClain. Many more of Perry's former assistants and players have gone on to enjoy success in the coaching profession.

Perry passed away in February of 1992. At his memorial service former Michigan coach Bo Schembechler, an assistant on Perry's 1955 staff, said, "I don't believe I can name a coach, anywhere, anytime, anyhow, who did it better than Doyt Perry."

A documentary on Perry's career was released in May of 1998. It was produced by WBGU-TV.

WHY ORANGE AND BROWN?

Orange and brown have been the school colors at Bowling Green State University since 1914, the first year of classes. Legend has it that Leon Winslow, an industrial arts faculty member, got the idea from watching a women's hat on a bus to nearby Toledo, Ohio. He liked the brown and orange color combination. So, too, did former Cleveland Browns' head coach Paul Brown. Following a trip to BGSU in the 1940s, Brown used the colors for his All-America Conference team.

ALMA MATER

Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.

Time will treat you kindly
Years from now you'll be
Ever dearer in our hearts,
Our University.

From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
From our dear Bowling Green.

When all is just a mem'ry
Of the by-gone days,
Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

FIGHT SONG

Forward Falcons, Forward Falcons
Fight for victory,
Show your spirit, make them fear it
Fight for 'ol Bee Gee.

Forward Falcons, Forward Falcons
Make the contest keen,
Shout out the fame of our mighty name
And win for Bowling Green!

AY ZIGGY ZOOMBA

Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zoomba
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Ze
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zoomba
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zi
Roll along you BG warriors
Roll along and win for BGSU

Ay Ziggy Zoomba is Bowling Green's unofficial fight song. Gil Fox, an Air Force bombardier in World War II stationed in Italy, brought a loose translation of a Zulu war chant back with him, and since its introduction in 1946 to a campus spirit assembly, it has kept its place in BGSU history. The Falcon football team traditionally sings "Ay Ziggy Zoomba" after each victory.

RECORD BOOK • SPIRIT & TRADITION

Retired Jersey

The only football jersey ever retired at Bowling Green is #29. It was worn by Paul Miles from 1971-73. Miles rushed for 3,239 yards and 25 touchdowns in his career and was a three-time first team All-MAC selection. He was just the third back in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 or more yards in three consecutive seasons.

Frieda & Freddie Falcon

Frieda and Freddie Falcon are the official mascots of the Bowling Green Falcons. Together with the BGSU cheerleaders, Frieda and Freddie boost spirit at intercollegiate athletic events. Tryouts are held each spring, and winners remain anonymous to the student body until each is "beheaded" at the last home basketball and hockey game. The Freddie Falcon tradition began in 1950 while Frieda Falcon was added for the 1979-80 athletic year.

Why The Falcons?

The 2012-2013 athletic year marks the 85th anniversary of Bowling Green's nickname, Falcons. Before 1927, BG teams were called the Normals or Teachers. Ivan Lake '23 suggested the nickname after reading an article on falconry. Lake, managing editor and sports editor of the Sentinel Tribune in Bowling Green at the time, proposed the name change because it fit headline space and because falcons were "the most powerful bird for their size and often attacked birds two or three times their size."

PEACE PIPE AWARD

The Peace Pipe was a traveling award that went to the winner of the annual gridiron battle between Bowling Green and Toledo. The Peace Pipe tradition actually began on the basketball court during the 1947-48 season. At that time, the teams exchanged a six-foot long wooden peace pipe. The original basketball Peace Pipe disappeared, so, in 1980, the Peace Pipe was reinstated for football with former UT football player Frank Kralik creating the present trophy. Today's Peace Pipe is a smaller version of the original pipe, resting atop a trophy. The Peace Pipe was eliminated prior to the 2011 season and replaced by the "Battle of I-75" Trophy.

ANNIVERSARY AWARD

The Anniversary Award is a traveling award that goes to the winner of the football game between Bowling Green and Kent State. Established in 1985 by the respective alumni departments at BGSU and KSU, the Anniversary Award commemorates the founding of BGSU and KSU in the year 1910.

RECORD BOOK • DOYT L. PERRY STADIUM

Doyt L. Perry Stadium has added lights, a new scoreboard, FieldTurf, some chairback seating and the Sebo Athletic Center since 2001

Doyt L. Perry Stadium, with its 24,000 seating capacity, is celebrating its 47th year as the home of Bowling Green State University football. In 2001 permanent lighting was installed at the venue and home attendance doubled. In 2007 FieldTurf and the Sebo Athletic Center were added and new for 2012 is a high definition video board in the south endzone.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Stadium had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982 (Those bleachers have been removed, to give way for the Sebo Athletic Center, giving BGSU the 24,000 current capacity). One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Stadium set the conference record for single-game attendance.

On Oct. 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Stadium for the annual Northwest Ohio rivalry between Bowling Green and Toledo, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance. The Falcons went on to set a season record, breaking the six-digit figure for five games with a total draw of 100,021. It marked the first time in history that Bowling Green averaged more than 20,000 fans for five home football games.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out Toledo at Perry Stadium in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green's season attendance to an average of 22,422. In 1994, BG fans bettered the mark of 1985 as 114,802 fans, an average of 22,960, attended the five home games.

In 2003, Falcon faithful attended sellout games against Northern Illinois and Toledo as ESPN broadcast three games live from the facility and brought its weekly college football show, Gameday, to Bowling Green. That year, BGSU averaged more than 21,000 per home game.

Perry Stadium is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes locker rooms, equipment and training rooms, along with the Athletic Department offices. The west side is the home of the new BGSU Golf Training Center, filled with a 1,200 square foot putting green, locker rooms and hitting bays.

Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. The Stadium Club's 106 theatre-type seats provide loyal BGSU fans with the best view of the game. The President's Box, located at the top of the east side of the stadium, provides luxury seating for the University President and her guests, along with other supporters of Falcon football.

The construction of elevators on both sides of the stadium, completed in early 1998, has made the stadium more accessible for all fans. Renovations to all boxes on both sides and the stadium club have taken place over the last few years making for a more "fan-friendly" atmosphere. Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Stadium, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on Oct. 1, 1966. Since that time, the Falcons have won over 65 percent of their home games, compiling a 142-72-6 record in the 220 games played at Perry Stadium.

Perry Stadium is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons. Doyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His .855 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, Perry is fifth all-time behind Bob Reade (Augustana), Knute Rockne (Notre Dame), Frank Leahy (Notre Dame), and Larry Kehres (Mount Union) in winning percentage among coaches with at least 10 years of service on the collegiate level. Perry served as the BGSU athletic director for seven years (1965-71) after stepping down as football coach.

The football facility at BGSU was formally dedicated as Doyt L. Perry Stadium on Sept. 26, 1992. Present for the ceremony were (l-r) Perry's children D.L., Judy Perry McClain, David and Doyt's wife Loretta. They are joined by John Mahaney, former president of the Board of Trustees, former University President Paul J. Olscamp and former Athletic Director Jack Gregory.
